INTERESTING TIMEClay Ward Democrats to Have Their Rally To-morrow Night.

The Clay Ward Democrats are expecting a great time to-morrow night, when Hon. Harry Tucker and Hon. Chas. T. Bland will make speeches for Parker, Davis and Lamb in the assembly room of Belvidere Hall, commencing at 8 o'clock.

The meeting will be presided over by Mr. E. W. Miller, president of the Clay Ward Democrats and a long list of prominent Democrats will act as vice-presidents and occupy seats upon the stage. A band will make a tour of the ward before the speaking begins and will be present to intersperse the programme with lively music.

City Chairman Doherty will meet the speakers and take them to Murphy's, where they will stop. He will also accompany them to the hall.

There will likely be a large crowd on hand, as both the speakers are known here. The City Democratic Committee will meet to-night to perfect arrangements for other meetings to be held.

Wanted to Take Possession.

A young man named T. W. Staples, of Scottsville, while in an intoxicated state, went into a boarding house at Tenth and Marshall Streets yesterday afternoon and created a sensation. He had a pistol, with which he threatened several people in the house and demanded a room. He was taken to the Second Station by Officers Kellam and Zimmer.

Service of Sorrow.

Richmond Lodge, No. 45, B. P. O. E., will hold a memorial service, or season of sorrow, in the lodge room at the Elks' Home to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock, that being the anniversary of the birth of Meade D. Detweiler, a past grand exalted ruler and founder of the Elks' Home at Bedford, Va.

Past Exalted Ruler Phil. G. Kelley will deliver an address.

Likes the Archbishop.

Mr. John L. Williams, delegate to the Protestant Episcopal Convention in Boston, has returned. He reports having enjoyed himself, and says that he was much pleased with the archbishop, with whom he had a very pleasant conversation.

CAUSE OF
SEWER GASInspector Landers Suggests a Remedy for the Noisome Nuisance.

MANY FOUND DEFECTIVE

Citizens Are Complaining Bitterly—Board of Health
Acts Promptly.

The Board of Health has received a number of complaints from citizens in various sections of the city about the escape of sewer gas, which spreads foul odors to the discomfort and disgust of people in the various localities.

At the last meeting of the board, Inspector Landers was directed to make an inspection of the sewer system of the city to ascertain the cause of the trouble.

The inspection has been made, and the result is of interest, in that it indicates, according to the inspector's views, a faulty construction of some of the sewers.

Sewers in Fulton, in the West End and the central section of the city, were inspected by Mr. Landers, and he found that all the sewer openings which were not supplied with "traps" sent forth the foul odors, but that those with "traps" were perfect.

Peculiar conditions existed in some cases. At Ninth and Grace Streets there are three sewer openings. Two of them are without traps and the others are properly protected. The two are public nuisances, in that the foul sewer gas is expelled to the danger of the health of the neighborhood. There were similar instances in other sections.

All Should Have Traps.

"In my opinion," said the inspector, "all sewers should be protected by 'traps.' In that way it will be impossible for the gas to escape into the street, and there will be no danger of disease from the obnoxious fumes."

Mr. Landers said he would recommend to the Board of Health at the next meeting that "traps" be placed in all the sewers.

A trap is a partition between the space leading from the inlet of the sewer to the discharge pipe, with a space below for the collection of water. The partition keeps the water above the ground line, thereby making it impossible for the gas to pass through to the mouth of the sewer. The old sewers are supplied with traps, but most of the new ones are not.

In the latter construction of sewers, numbers of ventilating caps are placed at intervals along the line, and the gas escapes immediately above the main pipes of the sewers. These ventilators are designed to carry off the gas, but at times the holes become filled with dirt and refuse, and the ventilators become almost useless. Then the gas makes its way from the mouth of the sewer.

CORDIAL RECEPTION.

Women's Missionary Circle Cordially Greets Mrs. Buchanan.

The quarterly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Circle, Auxiliary to the Baptist Church of Richmond and vicinity, was held at the Grove Avenue Baptist Church yesterday afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock.

In addition to the transaction of the usual business the meeting was made unusually interesting, being the occasion of a reception in honor of Mrs. James Buchanan, the wife and assistant of the secretary and city missionary of the Baptist Church. Mrs. Buchanan has been adopted by the Circle and made its representative in the proposed active city mission work of the Baptists of Richmond. This was the first opportunity she has had to meet the active women workers, collectively. Those receiving with Mrs. Buchanan were Mrs. A. J. Montague, Mrs. A. L. Stratford, the president of the Circle, and the vice-presidents and other officers of it.

Mrs. Buchanan made a most interesting address, explaining to the Circle the nature and scope of the city mission work proposed, to be done by the Council and the Auxiliary, the Circle and the refreshments were served by the ladies of the Grove Avenue Church.

TWO CHARTERS GRANTED.

Big Norfolk Concern Was Incorporated Yesterday.

The Corporation Commission yesterday granted the following charters, which will be of interest in the Eastern section of the State:

Real Estate Trust and Insurance Company, Incorporated, Norfolk; incorporators, T. F. Rogers, president, Norfolk, Va.; R. A. Walworth, vice-president, Norfolk, Va.; E. P. Crockett, secretary and treasurer, Norfolk, Va.; Capital stock, $50,000. Objects, to conduct a general real estate and rent business, a banking, savings bank and trust company's business.

Norris-Wilcox Company, Incorporated, Waverly; incorporators, J. E. Wilcox, president, Waverly, Va.; R. D. Norris, manager and treasurer, Waverly, Va.; C. H. Harris, secretary, Waverly, Va.; Capital stock, $15,000. Objects, to conduct a general merchandise business in all its departments, including the buying and selling of country produce.

WENT OVER THE HILL.

Negro in Henrico Sentenced to Penitentiary for Assault.

Rinaniel Nash, colored, was yesterday sentenced to serve five years in the State penitentiary, being convicted of feloniously assaulting George Baker, another negro. He was tried in the Circuit Court of Henrico.

The case has caused much interest here since the negro, Baker, died about a week ago at a camp at the settling basin, and it was thought the negro Nash would be charged with murder; however, the coroner's jury found that the man died from typhoid fever and not the wound inflicted by Nash with an axe. Both of the men were employed at the work on the new settling basin.

For a Relief Fund.

An entertainment will be given by the Women's Auxiliary of the Block and Relief Benefit of employees of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall at Reservoir Park on Monday evening.

Water Committee Meets.

The Committee on Water will meet at the City Hall at 8 o'clock to-night, for the transaction of routine business. Chairman Martin desires a full attendance of the members.

LEG BROKEN
IN ACCIDENTDavid Worsham Tackled in Foot-Ball Game and Badly Hurt.

TWO OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Twenty-five Summonses Served on Alleged Ordinance
Violators.Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch }
No. 1102 Hull Street, }
David Worsham, fifteen-year-old son of Mr. J. J. Worsham, of No. 13 East Ninth Street, had his leg broken while being tackled by Howard Williams in a game of foot-ball, which was played early last night beneath the electric light at Ninth and Decatur Streets. The leg, which was broken between the knee and ankle, was set by Dr. M. Pierce Rucker, who was called hurriedly to the scene of the accident. The boy, who had been out of the house scarcely five minutes, is said to be resting easy.

Two Officers Elected.

In a joint meeting of the City Assembly last night H. K. Reid was elected collector of delinquent taxes, and William Allen was chosen superintendent of the City Cemetery.

Mr. J. R. Perdue, president of the Board of Aldermen, just before adjourning the joint session, made a short talk, discommending the habit of some members indulging in smoking while the Board or Council were in session. He thought, while not speaking authoritatively, that the habit should be discontinued as it lessened the dignity of the meetings. His suggestion seemed to meet with the hearty approval of the members, even of those who are most addicted to the use of the fragrant weed.

Make Sewer Connections.

Nearly twenty-five summonses have been issued for those who are still failing to comply with the health ordinance. Mr. A. J. Bradley, owner of Leader Hall, is among the number summoned. The condition around his building is very bad, and he will be required to make connection between it and the sewer.

It will be a difficult matter for one person—a widow—to comply with the ordinance, as she is paying for her house on the installment plan, and the extra expense involved would be more than she could meet.

Personals and Briefs.

Mrs. J. N. Whitaker, who has been visiting in Manchester for a few days, is now visiting Miss Davis, of Drewry's Bluff.

Mr. James H. Lumpkin, who has been in town for the past ten days serving on the United States jury, will return to Amelia county to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Abbott returned Wednesday night from their wedding trip.

MUST HAVE MONTAGUE.

Delaware Committee Appeals to Him for Help.

Governor Montague will probably go to Delaware and make two speeches in that State on Wednesday next at the urgent request of the National Democratic Committee. Following up his first message, Superintendent Daniel McConville, of the National Speakers' Bureau, wired the Governor as follows yesterday:

New York, Oct. 13, 1904.
Hon. A. J. Montague, Richmond, Va.:
The Delaware State Committee urgently request you to speak at Georgetown and Lewes, Del., on October 18th; one place in the afternoon and another in the evening of the same day, and insist that you can do them more good than anyone else. Please wire acceptance so I can make assignment definite.DANIEL McCONVILLE.
The message will be repeated to the Governor to-day at Annapolis, where he is at present, and it is not known that he will go, it is thought he will.

BRAXTON NOT TO SPEAK.

Owing to Brother's Illness, All Engagements Are Cancelled.

A letter was received at Democratic headquarters yesterday from Hon. C. G. Braxton, cancelling all of his appointments, eleven in all, including that for Richmond city, October 27th. Attorney-General Braxton, who is in the city, is expected to fill the appointment of Mr. Braxton at Courtland, Southampton county, next Monday. Mr. Braxton's action in cancelling his dates is due to the severe illness of his brother, Mr. Hugh C. Braxton, who was married in that city yesterday. The ill man is a lieutenant of the Staunton Rifles and served as adjutant of the Seventeenth Regiment at Manassas recently.

Among the visitors at headquarters yesterday were H. L. Wilson, of Newport News; Frank P. Brent, of this city; J. H. Hinton, of Newport News; and Hon. Samuel L. Kelley, Secretary Joseph Button is absent from the city in the Tenth District for a few days.

Allan Opens His Campaign.

Mr. Edgar Allan, Jr., one of the Republican candidates for Congress in the Third District, announced that he will open his campaign with an open air meeting at 8 o'clock to-night, speaking from the balcony of the Powhatan Hotel.

Mr. Patton Here.

Mr. J. L. Patton, one of the Virginia Commissioners to the World's Fair, is in the city, having come up from his home in Newport News yesterday to look after some private matters. Mr. Patton will go to St. Louis to-morrow to look after some of his business. He is much pleased with the success of the Virginia exhibit.

Will Elect Officers.

The Helping Circle of the King's Daughters will meet this evening at 4:30 o'clock in the home of Miss Mabel Turner, No. 232 East Grace Street. As the annual election of officers will take place, every member is earnestly requested to attend.

TWO DRUG STORES
SOLD YESTERDAYL. Wagner's Place Purchased by Blanks—Charleston Man Buys Shine's.

On yesterday two of the oldest drug stores in the city changed hands. They were the places of L. Wagner & Co., Sixth and Broad Streets, and the store of the late Edgar Shine, at the northeast corner of Twenty-eighth and Broad Streets.

The Wagner store, fixtures and stock were bought by the Blanks Prescription Druggist, Incorporated, for the sum of $6,250. While all of the details of the sale have not been completed, it is certain that the corporation will take charge of the store at an early date.

The Blanks Prescription Druggist, Incorporated, now has control of seven drugstores of the city, situated in every section.

Shine's drugstore at the corner of Twenty-eighth and Broad Street, was sold at public auction by Messrs. J. B. Blam & Co., and George W. Mayo to Mr. J. H. Manly, formerly of Clifton, W. Va., for the sum of $5,535.

The property consisted of the stock, fixtures and good will. There was a large attendance at the sale and the bidding was spirited.

Among the bidders were the Blanks Prescription Druggist, Incorporated; T. N. Con, J. W. Fraser and Owens and Minor. The sale was made at the instance of the administratrix of the estate of the late Edgar Shine.

Mr. Manly was originally a traveling salesman for a large drug concern. It is understood that he will occupy the stand as early as possible.

AT THE THEATRES

Maude Adams, whom Charles Frohman will present here for an engagement of to-night and to-morrow matinee and night, at the Academy, will, without question, be welcomed by the presence of more people than any dramatic star that has come this way for a long time. It is a part of the history of the city that Maude Adams plays to larger audience than any other female star now before the public. She will be seen here in "The Little Minister." The name of Maude Adams comes for a great deal in dramatic circles. As for a great deal in dramatic circles, she is a woman few can say they have ever met. She lives much of her time in reading and study. Miss Adams is a highly educated young woman, and speaks four or five languages fluently. She is a native of New York, and has been in the city for many years. She is supported by all of her original company, with three exceptions, that assisted her in preparing the play for three consecutive years.

Babes in Toyland."

There are so many songs in "Babes in Toyland," that every child is gratified. Among the brilliant musical numbers which Victor Herbert wrote for this most pretentious effort, is the now world-famous "Toyland March." And these must not be forgotten—"Can't Do the Sum," over which New York raved; "Beatrice's Lullaby," which was a hit in "The Little Minister," and "The Little Minister," which everyone who hears them. "Babes in Toyland" will be the event of the dramatic season here.

Mrs. Stonewall Blazer.

Mrs. Florence Hughes, who is portraying the role of "Mrs. General Stonewall Blazer," in "The Hot Old Time," at the Bijou, is giving lessons on the management of husbands, that when it is proved, make some men in the town miserable. She has the General under absolute and complete subjugation. "A Hot Old Time" was enjoyed by two large audiences yesterday afternoon and night. Mr. Yost and Mr. McRobie created no end of fun and amusement by their antics, while the humor, contributed by the others was also enjoyed. The same bill will be presented to-night and to-morrow matinee and night.

Speaks Well of It.

The Norfolk Ledger of yesterday says of the play which comes to the Bijou next week:

"Oxy Grandpa" delighted another large audience at the Grandly last night. It is one of the best shows that has ever been at this house. The company is large, the music is tuneful, the girls are good looking and the scenery and costumes are electrical effects up-to-date. There has probably never been a better singing quartet of husbands, that when it is proved, Grandpa." The song, "My Clementine," which is sung in the last act, sets five and six couples every night."

CAPTAIN KERSE WINS.

Popular Police Officer Gets Suit
Given Catholic Bazaar.

The handsome suit of clothes donated to the Catholic Bazaar by Mr. Barry Kerse, a well-known merchant tailor, was awarded last night at the residence of Mrs. W. P. Leaman to Captain James Kerse, of the Second Police District. The donation was one of the handsomest and most valuable made by any one to the bazaar, and there was a lively contest for the prize by a number of popular citizens.

Captain Kerse is very proud of the clothes he wears because of their money value, but because he won them over strong competitors.

Cornell Glee Club Coming.
Messrs. George Vant and George Holt, Jr., managers of the Cornell Glee Club, embracing banjo, guitar and mandolin clubs, will arrive in the city to-day to perfect arrangements for a concert to be given here on the night of December 29th. They will stop at the Jefferson and de-SEVEN PASS BOARD.

What Did the Woggle Bug Say?

Reader of The Times-Dispatch will find himself or herself puzzling over this perplexing question after he has read the page in the Magazine Section devoted to the doings of the "Queer Visitors from the Marvelous Land of Oz."

The Woggle Bug, wise man of the party, undertakes to answer all questions for his comrades from Oz. He has to answer one each week. His answer is not printed. The reader is left to discover it. The pictures and descriptive matter make this comparatively easy to the active mind. Both the pictures and the story are guides to the solution of the problem, and the question admits of but one correct answer. The puzzles require only ordinary skill.

$25.00 in Prizes.

To stimulate interest in the visit of the people from the Land of Oz. The Times-Dispatch will give Twenty Dollars in cash and five copies of Mr. Baum's interesting book, "The Marvelous Land of Oz," each month to those of its readers who send in correct or nearly correct answers to the questions put to the Woggle Bug by his companions.
